

Alone In Love

You stole my heart away from me,
With a warm and tender smile,
And made me love you madly while
You never even cared;

You stole my soul away from me,
And made me feel the emptiness,
While in your web of loneliness
I remained ensnared;

You stole away my very life,
And gave me only pain and strife,
And slowly made me realize
That tears will always fill these eyes,
And that I'll never rise above

A fire that keeps me

Alone in love.
